

P.O. Box 6365 • LANCASTER, PA 17607 • (888) 392-8238

For release July 15, 2005 (in connection with July 30 books signing)

Contact: Colette Shaw, (717) 371-7429

Email: Colette@KISSfiction.com

“It’s Always the Quiet Ones Who Hide the Biggest Secrets...”

When Colette Shaw, the daughter of Friendship’s former school superintendent Jack Shaw, returns to Western New York to attend her high school class reunion, her life path may raise some eyebrows. As a college dean in Pennsylvania, Shaw was also the author of *Won’t Get Fooled Again, the new novel that many believe to be semi-autobiographical. The book follows the upheaval of a female business executive’s personal and professional lives when her secret rock & roll fantasies comes to light. Shaw will be doing a book signing/library fundraiser at the Friendship Free Library on Saturday, July 30 from 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. The event is free and open to the public.

Shaw admits that her life loosely parallels that of her protagonist, Suzanne Curtis. “It took a long time to come to terms with my closet full of business suits and leather jackets, but I think a lot of people can relate to some type of double existence.”

Many fans of the rock group KISS have known about Shaw for several years, since her dichotomous life was featured in the documentary film “Living the Fantasy.” Shaw is unsure how former neighbors and classmates will respond when she returns to Friendship, but she is optimistic. “Almost everyone has a secret longing that doesn’t make sense to the world,” she says. “I hope I’ve found a way to help others who harbor dueling passions to take a risk and explore their interests. Doing my book signing the same weekend as my class reunion represents a new challenge of reconciling an old persona with my current life. I suspect I’m not the only one!”

Won’t Get Fooled Again

When executive Suzanne Curtis’s rock & roll fantasy life spins out of control, she is thrust into a world of blackmail, betrayal, and the possible downfall of the company she loves. Two very different men sweep in to support her, each of whom appeals to a different side of her dualistic nature—but can she trust either one?

About the Author

Colette Shaw, affectionately known as the "Dean of All Media," writes from her home in Lancaster, PA. A former resident of Friendship, NY, she is now a college administrator, classical musician and loyal member of the KISS Army. While she has published numerous articles related to her career in academia, Won't Get Fooled Again is her first novel. In 2003, she was the subject of the documentary film "Living the Fantasy" which explored her double life, as well as the KISS fan culture at large. Shaw maintains a personal website about her rock & roll dreams and writerly exploits at www.ColetteShaw.com

Book Signing

When: Saturday, July 30 from 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.
Where: Friendship Free Library, 40 West Main Street, Friendship, NY
Cost: Free and open to public (A portion of all proceeds made from book sales will be donated to the library fundraiser for computers)

Book Statistics

Title: Won't Get Fooled Again
Author: Colette Shaw
ISBN: 0-9768731-5-X
Category: Fiction
Length: 250 pages
Retail Price: $14.95
Binding: 6" x 9" trade paperback
Release: June 28, 2005

Reviewers

For a gratis copy, please contact the following:

Loose Slips Press
c/o Roderick S. Pierce
P.O. Box 6365
Lancaster, PA 17607
(888) 392-8238

or contact the author directly at Colette@KISSfiction.com